May 20, 2015 | 3-5:00 pm (EDT) | 6th Floor Flom Auditorium, Wilson Center, Washington, DC

"Mist of the Earth," an exhibition of photographs and photo-collages by renewed Brazilian artist Denise Milan, joins memory and history and invites viewers on a journey of imagination and reflection about the environmental challenges of development.

On May 20, a panel of experts will join the artist to discuss the roles of art in sustainability as the Brazil Institute welcomes "Mist of the Earth" to Washington.

A reception and viewing of the artwork with Milan and exhibit Curator Simon Watson will follow.
